How to fold a table cover to reduce wrinkles

1 Folding a table cover properly after use can greatly reduce creasing

2 It's better to fold the table cover with 2 persons. Each person grab the middle edge of the right and left sides to fold the front and back sides.

3 Fold the table cover in half lengthwise

4 Repeat the step, you will get a rectangle

5 Put it on the table. Grab the longer sides and fold that side to the center. Repeat on the opposite end.

6 Grab the shorter sides and fold that side to the center of half

7 Repeat on the opposite end, and fold it in half again so that it creates a square shape

8 Put the table cover in the matched bag

9 Zip the zipper up
